

A Mid Winter Respite for Women

A time of Prayer and Reflection

Sunday, January 30, 2011, 1:30 - 5:00 PM

Arrival: 1:00 - 1:30 PM

The holidays are over; the trim and wrapping are put away, and now this 'respite' time is just for YOU ...

... to replenish your spirit and to refocus your life!

Presented by: The Center Within

Sisters of Charity Motherhouse, Mt. St. Joseph, situated on the hillside overlooking the Ohio River, offers us the beauty of winter. Winter is a time when the tree roots are growing in quiet hibernation, encouraging us to take time for prayer and reflection on the goodness and beauty of life in us.

Come, join the circle of women on the journey of life during this midwinter season.

We will together create sacred space, which includes:

Song and Guided Prayer/ Reflection

Quiet Reflective time for Listening Within

Sharing our Stories (if you wish)

Celebrating our Lives Together in Ritual

Led by: Kathleen Hartman Blackburn, Donna Steffen, SC, Jean Marie Stross

Held at: Rose Room at Sisters of Charity Motherhouse,

5900 Delhi Road, Mt. St. Joseph, OH 45051

From River Road (50 West), turn Right onto Fairbanks, which becomes Delhi.

Stay on Delhi until it deadends at the entrance to the Sisters of Charity

Motherhouse. A parking lot is found just past the buildings. Use main entrance!
