

Harvesting the Stories of Women on the Journey

A time of Prayer and Reflection, tending God's action in Women's Lives
Sunday, October 24, 2010, 1:30 - 5:00 PM

Arrival: 1:00 - 1:30 PM

For generations, women have shared the story of life's journey in campfire circles, in quilting circles, in coffee and prayer circles.

The Center Within ministry continues the legacy. This event is a response to women who welcome opportunity to create sacred space for listening to their own journey more deeply, and who recognize the power in shared stories. The richness of the story is in diversity. We welcome women of all ages, races, religious background and economic resources.

We will together create sacred space, which includes:

- Song
- Quiet Reflective time for Listening Within
- Sharing our Stories
- Celebrating our Lives Together in Ritual

Led by: Kathleen Hartman Blackburn, Donna Steffen, SC, Jean Marie Stross
